Being the manufacturers ourselves, the buyer obtains the watch from first hand. This explains its cheapness.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 25.

REUTER'S London telegram of yesterday still quotes 99½ for Consols, and no change is reported in Indian securities, either Sterling or Rupee. In Exchange Bank shares a decline of £1 is quoted in Chartered Mercantile, and an advance of like extent in Hongkong and Shanghai. A dividend of 5 per cent., Reuter says, has been declared by the New Oriental Bank for the past year.

In the produce markets no movement is advised, except a partial decline of 3d. to 6d. per quarter in Calcutta Linseed.

In his reports of the Liverpool Cotton market Reuter seems to have come to an end of his usual phrases expressive of extreme dulness, and styles the closing tone yesterday inanimate. The day's sales were only 7,000 bales, and Spot quotations exhibit a decline of 1-16d. per lb. in Mid-Uplands and ⅛ Good and Fine Broach, while Americans to arrive are quoted 1-64d. lower. In New York ready Mid-Uplands are still quoted at 10⅜ cents, futures 2 points higher at 9·92 cent.

Here there is simply no business doing in Cotton. The receipts from the districts are down to very small figures, the total for the week ending to-day being only 18,000 bales. There is consequently no pressure of supplies; but, on the other hand, the home demand is practically at a standstill, and no one is touching the article for speculative purposes. The statistical position no doubt favours bullish tendencies, but in the species of paralysis which seems to have come over the trade, statistics appear to have lost all influence.

WHEAT is rather quieter. For Ekdani the quotation is Rs. 3-11½ and for No. 1 Club Delhi Rs. 3-9 per cwt. but buyers decline to go on at these figures. Red Ahmedabad has now advanced to Rs. 3-14 for ready lots wanted to cover in contracts.

In SEEDS there is no quotable change.

FREIGHTS are rather quieter again, the fact of Reuter having announced the passage of nine steamers through the Canal homewards and seven outwards being treated as against rates. The batch of outward boats, however, includes two already loading in Bombay harbour, the Mirzapore and Elektra, which of course passed before the obstruction.

We quote current rates to-day:—

	Ready.	Forward.
Liverpool	20s. 1½ 3s. 3d.
Continent.	mea. wheat 17s. 6d.
Open Charter
Hallfax	23s. 6d.
Antwerp	22s. 9d.
Marseilles	12s. 9d.
Trieste-Venice....	30s.

IMPORTS are quiet; the way in which the monsoon is holding off deterring dealers from operating with any freedom for future shipments.

EXCHANGE:—The result of the bidding in London yesterday for the Secretary of State's drafts was the allotment of Rs. 300,000 on Calcutta and Rs. 120,000 on Bombay at bills at 1s. 6 29-32d., and 2 lakhs wire transfer on Calcutta at 1s. 6 31-32d. These rates being certainly 1-32d., under what was previously anticipated on this side, our market to-day has shown an easier tendency. A fair inquiry was manifested during the morning for Bank Bills on demand and telegraphic forward, but the Banks declined to go on unless at a reduction of 1-32d. from yesterday's quotations, and at the close seemed rather indisposed to give even ready rates. We quote:—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 6 29-32d. per rupee
Do. Telegraphic	1s. 6 7-8d. ,,
Do. Three months' sight	1s. 7d. ,,
Credits ,, ,, ,, ...	1s. 7 1-32d. to 1-16d. ,,
Francs ,, ,, ,, ...	2 01½ ,,

The Government Gazette issued to-day gives the following statement of Silver in the Mint:—

	Rs.
Balance in hand on 15th June.....	87,63,276
Silver received during the week	32,20,951
	1,19,84,227

Silver belonging to private individuals	52,03,029
	Rs. 1,47,37,249
Last week	Rs. 1,53,31,443

The imports of Silver during the past week have been 18 lakhs and of Gold Rs. 80,000. From London the shipments reported in yesterday's telegram are £50,000 in Silver and £20,000 in gold.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has been in strong request to-day, and Fours have advanced to Rs. 97 13-16. Fours-and-a-half remain nominally at par.

SHARES have not been quite so active. Spinning and Weaving Mills more especially have evinced a weaker tone, and in many instances are Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 lower. Bank of Bombays are firm at Rs. 740, an advance of Rs. 2½ per share.

THE UNITED SERVICE INSTITUTION.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, JUNE 25.

The members of the United Service Institution dined together last night to discuss military matters.

Colonel Gage spoke on cryptography. He thought that it was most desirable that some system should be taught throughout the army. All officers could then communicate in times of danger. He has worked out a system himself.

Colonel Brookshank spoke at some length against the present system of numerous camp followers, which requires a large percentage of soldiers to protect one army corps or camp, which extends fifteen miles. He suggested that armed and trained followers, capable of defending themselves and the camp, should be provided. He deprecated a large number of followers, and considered that the troops should do most things themselves. The Russians have trained and armed followers.

One month having elapsed in accordance with the motion of adjournment carried at the May meeting of the Bombay Municipal Corporation, consideration of Mr. Geary's proposal with regard to the new Municipal Offices and Hall was yesterday resumed. This proposition, which Lieut-Colonel Merewether had seconded, adopted Mr. Chisholm's designs for the new offices subject to the modifications necessary to provide for the accommodation of 600 persons in the hall; authorised the employment of Mr. Chisholm as architect at the rate of 5 per cent. on the sanctioned cost and directing the Town Council to apply for sanction to the payment of Rs. 3,55,000, the difference between the Rs. 4,25,000 already provided and the estimated total cost of the building, land and all charges, Rs. 7,80,000. The discussion was continued by Dr. Peterson, who opposed the extra expenditure on the ground that the Corporation could get all they required for the five lakhs already sanctioned, by disposing of the city hall. They should instead ask Government to part with the control of the large hall in the Town Hall buildings, and there would be no difficulty in their acceding to this reasonable demand. After a long debate, an amendment was proposed by the Hon. Mr. Telang declaring that the Corporation had determined the cost should not exceed five lakhs, and asking Mr. Chisholm whether and on what terms he would undertake to prepare other plans for the offices and hall within that limit. Mr. Geary having replied, the Corporation proceeded to the vote. The amendment was carried by 14 votes to 13, and subsequently adopted as the substantive resolution by 17 to 13. The Corporation then adjourned until this afternoon.

We hear that His Excellency Lord Reay has expressed to His Highness Nawab Basmilla Khan Bab of Radhanpur, Political Central Gujerat, the cordial thanks of Government for the loyalty which prompted His Highness to offer 200 ponies for service on the North-West frontier and to place the resources of his State at the disposal of Government. The offer was communicated to the Government of India, who have had one more added to the numerous proofs of loyalty and good feeling on the part of the native princes of India which recent events have called forth.

On the recommendation of the Government of India, a good service pension has been conferred on Brigade Surgeon C. J. F. Macdowall, I. M. D., Bombay Establishment. Dr. Macdowall has been in the service for nearly twenty-nine years, his first commission being dated August 4, 1856. He was in the Crimean campaign and served with the Turkish contingent. In the following year he took part in the Persian expedition and was present at the capture of Mohumrah. A few months later he was in the Mutiny, witnessed the capture of Hulgalli and took part in the operations against rebel Dessaies in the Southern Maratha Country. He also joined the Abyssinian expedition of 1867-8 and was present at the storming of Magdala.

Cholera has almost disappeared from Bombay. During the week ending the 23rd instant, only two deaths were registered, one in Oomurkhary and the other in Coombarwada. There is, however, a good deal of fever in the city, 117 deaths from remittent fever being registered against 97 in the corresponding week of last year and a mean of 84 in the corresponding weeks of the last five years.

The following is the official summary of the Bombay Presidency season reports for the week ending the 23rd instant:—"Good rain in some districts, but insufficient for sowing in most. Deficiency of water in the canals in parts of Sind. Preparations for kharif crops continue in parts of twelve districts. Scarcity of drinking-water in one taluka of Dharwar and of fodder in three talukas of Dharwar and two of Ahmednuggur. Cholera in parts of eighteen, small-pox in parts of eleven, and fever and cattle-disease in parts of eight districts."

Messrs Bolton and Company have been appointed purveyors in ordinary to His Excellency the Governor of Bombay.

Two instances have recently been recorded of the curiously paternal interest which natives demand sometimes from Government. In one a woman applied to a Bombay police court for money from the poor-box to enable her to celebrate the approaching marriage of her son with becoming éclat. In the other we gather from an up-country paper a zemindar in the Kistna district had applied for temporary relief from payment of kist on the ground that his income was "not good enough to meet the expenses of our large and great family and those of auspicious ceremonies," and that he was "entangled in good many difficulties on account of the marriage ceremonies of our granddaughters." The folly of pauper marriage or the dishonesty of spending in feasts money due to the Government never seems to have occurred in the most distant way to either applicant.

Before the prorogation of four months lately granted by the Holy See in favour of the Padroado, the relations between the Vatican and the Court of Portugal had become so strained that very little was required to bring about a diplomatic rupture. From the Lisbon papers it appears that the Holy See was not at all inclined to extend the extraordinary jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Goa until the question of the Padroado had been finally decided. This uncompromising attitude was met with equal energy from the Lisbon Court, and orders were issued for the corvet Estaphauia to proceed at once to Naples and await the orders of Marquis de Thomar, the Portuguese Ambassador at the Vatican. It was arranged that if the Holy See persisted in refusing a prorogation the Ambassador was to leave Rome immediately and M. Vanutelli, the Papal Nuncio in Lisbon, was to be furnished with a passport and ordered to quit Portugal without delay.

The Pondicherry High Court has marked its determination to put down serious crimes in the settlement by the severity of its sentences on the men convicted of participation in the recent extensive groundnut robberies. All the accused, twenty-seven in number, were found guilty, and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment with hard labour. The principal, Araguppum, who organised the gang and planned the robberies, was condemned to ten years' hard labour in chains, and his four chief assistants to six years' each, also in chains; others were sentenced mostly to terms of one and two years each.

In a long article devoted to the Zanzibar question, the National Zeitung, which generally represents the opinions of the Moderate Liberal party, points out that, however undesirable further colonial extension and complications may be, there can be no question of the necessity for Germany to redeem any promise of protection already made. The article continues:—

"It is but a short time ago that Germany fully established her influence in Europe, and the rulers of Equatorial Africa have naturally no just idea of her great power. An occasional display of material force after peaceful means have failed will thus, in all probability, be an unavoidable accompaniment of her colonial policy."

The writer also hints that there is reason to believe that the English advisers of the Sultan have been the reverse of friendly to German interests. The Radical journals, on the other hand, complain that the German colonial policy has now been carried on for a year with no other result than two contests with native Powers.

If the boys and girls of Wellington, New Zealand, go natty, it will not be the fault of the police, who show a paternal regard for their well-being which is truly touching. The following is a copy of an order which has been recently issued by a highly moral inspector of that force:—"When young girls or lads are observed by the police about the streets under suspicious circumstances at unreasonable hours after dark, their names and addresses should be taken, and a report made of the same, in order that their parents and guardians may be informed. Discretion should be observed in not interfering with any who may be in company of persons of mature age who are capable of looking after them properly."

One of General Booth's officers, at Exeter Hall, recently told an anecdote that illustrates some of the methods by which the Salvationists startle their fellow-Christians. Dr. Miller said that, accompanied by Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Onslow, he was coming up from Oxford by rail, and that he "ventured to ask a lady in the carriage whether she was saved." "The lady," he added, "looked very indignant, and turned over the leaves of a book she was reading in a very nervous manner; but when, on nearing Reading, we went down on our knees and prayed for her she looked as if she could have turned us out of the carriage." This story, told with a chuckle and received by the assembled Army with loud laughter, betrays an innate coarseness of feeling on the part of the Salvationists concerned which, it is to be hoped, is not characteristic of the whole force.

Many fresh deaths are reported in consequence of the recurrence of cholera, in a virulent form, on the Bolan railway. Mr. O'Callaghan was to arrive at Rindli on Monday night. He has been instructed to report at once as to the practicability of continuing work while the cholera is raging.

The Journal de St. Petersburg publishes the following letter from Teheran, dated April 25:—"A few days ago the races were celebrated at Teheran, in the presence of the Shah, his Court, the members of the Corps Diplomatique, and an immense crowd. After the races came a grand review. About 9,000 men, composing the garrison of the capital, defiled before the stands. Everybody was surprised to see these too-often depised Persian troops march past in good order, armed and clothed like Europeans. Sufficient weight has not been given to the fact that during the last two years great reforms have been introduced into the force at Teheran under the direction of Prince Naib-es-Sultaneh, Minister for War. He has recently founded a military college for training officers for the Shah's army. This establishment has been entrusted to the charge of General Mirza Kerim Khan. This officer is not unknown in Europe, for he lived there some time. His last post was that of Military Attaché to the Persian Legation at Paris. His special knowledge, advanced views and superior intelligence all marked him out for his Sovereign's selection. Let it be added that this college is organised on the model of St. Cyr, and that the instruction will be given in the French language by foreign officers."

In the course of a speech at Birmingham, Mr. Chamberlain made some remarks indicative of the policy pursued by the Liberal Government in Egypt. He especially complained of the action of France, and said the Government had found great difficulties thrown in their way, both in connection with the administration of the country and also in connection with the rearrangement of its finances, and one effect of this was to delay the evacuation, which France and England have equal reason to desire—to postpone it, to make it difficult, and perhaps even in the last resort to make it impossible. He added:—

It cannot be tolerated that after the sacrifices we have made, our going away should be the signal for another Power to take up a preponderating position there. We have a right to expect that some guarantee shall be given to us that other nations will be as self-denying as we intend to be ourselves before we can leave the country. But we have also something else to do; we have a duty which we owe to the Egyptians. We have to provide them with some form of government which is likely to be a settled one. We have to relieve the peasants of excessive or unjust taxation, which might be a cause of discontent and trouble in the future, and we have to create some kind of native or other army which may answer for the defence of the country against external enemies and against internal disorder. These are objects surely in which we may seek and obtain the cordial assistance of France, and which are not calculated to provoke jealousy or alarm among other nations of the Continent.

BELL-RINGING AT SONAPORE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I trust this will meet the eye of those whom it concerns. Within the last fortnight a bell has been hung in the Roman Catholic Cemetery Church, Sonapore. If the bell and rope are undergoing a test, then I must confess that it is rather a severe one. On every occasion since its erection it has been rung with unnecessary violence, and partakes more of the fire alarm than a call to prayers. The din is something dreadful at 5-30 a.m., which is the hour at which the first bell is rung, and is, to say the least, vexatious. I, with others residing in the neighbourhood, do not object to the ringing of the bell in the proper manner, but we most decidedly do to such a din being created.

HINDU SANITARIA.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—It is said that a philanthropic native gentleman has come forward and offered Government a lakh of rupees to build a new hospital for the treatment of diseases of women and children.

The offer, although a very good one, is, as matters stand at present, both impracticable and undesirable on grounds of public economy and public necessity. I should like, however, to draw the attention of that philanthropic gentleman to Mr. Blaney's letter in the yesterday's issue of your contemporary, in which he urges the necessity of building sanitaria for the Hindu community.

I would suggest that the lakh of rupees so generously offered should not be allowed to lie fallow, but that it should be diverted to the building of a suitable sanitarium for the Hindu community. It will, I think, fill a crying want to a certain extent, and will be a real blessing to the sick poor of that community during their convalescence. I think no better use can be made of that sum, with additions to it if possible, than by making such a beginning—a beginning in the right direction.

Our new sanitarium might well be styled "The Narotumdas Vurjiwandas Hindu Sanitarium" if the donor is so inclined, and not a new medical school of that name, as suggested by "Anthropos" in your columns a few days ago.

THE INDUSTRIAL ARTS OF INDIA.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I have perused Mr. Manibhai's letter in your issue of this day, and as I have given considerable attention to this subject, please allow me to make a few remarks thereon.

So far as the "artistic" productions are concerned, you very correctly remark that they are "not likely to be improved by the presence of a few Indian youths in the West." I will, therefore confine myself to the "new industries," which it seems, to be the object of the patriotic and intelligent innovators to introduce in India.

Nothing can be more reasonable, judicious, and commendable than the object in view. The field is wide and they have only to pick and choose; but I am extremely surprised to see a body of intelligent men go about a laudable object in such a round-about and utterly unpractical manner.

With a view to introduce new industries from the West, a Mr. Rajwade, like a modern Don Quixote, rushes round the world. He goes to Australia to learn button-making and to America to learn glass-blowing, and then when in a year or so he has, to his own satisfaction, so thoroughly acquired the art (which takes an intelligent European five years to know) he turns to "tanning" above all things. By the way, there are excellent tanneries in Bombay and Cawnpore already.) So he went to Australia for botton-making, though Austria is notoriously the home of this industry; and he goes to America for glass-blowing because a shrewd American missionary wanted his passage paid to America, and abandoned the youth as soon as he reached the shores of go-aheadism. For considerably less than half the price, and without the passage money of the missionary, he might have made a beginning with the native youth and learnt glass-blowing in its most refined and artistic way, and lived for a quarter the price it cost to live in America; or for the matter of that, he might have gone to Belgium, or England, where he would not have found the natives at variance, and would not be encountered among the American workers.

Well, now that he has acquired that art, what does he propose to do? Start and work a glass manufactory? And who is to superintend it himself, and teach his companions? No! He proposes "to send to Europe for four or five European workmen to manage and start a factory and work it there for a few years." Could impudence go further? Why, you finishing where you should have begun! If you want to start, say, a glass-factory, what's the use of sending a single man to Europe to learn the trade? Why, after three years' hard work he comes back to his native land, and you would have to begin again! What you have to do, is to get from Europe the necessary plant and four or five thoroughly competent and well-selected men in each part of this industry (for, by the way, no single man understands the whole art thoroughly; each has his speciality). These men are engaged for two or three years on liberal salaries with the special agreement that they must teach every one sent to the works their own knowledge of glass-making, this way you create a new industry, which may or may not turn out profitable, but you teach hundreds of natives the art of glass-making at a hundredth part of the cost it would come to to teach half a dozen men the same thing in Europe, and you test practically, in a small way, if such an industry is a paying concern, and can be extended over the whole of India.

What I say here of glassmaking naturally applies as well to every other industry.

If you send a man to Europe you teach one, who may or may not become useful to you. If you get a man from Europe you teach hundreds who are sure by the very competition to be useful. A single man coming from home, supposing even he has well employed his time and become proficient, is necessarily expensive, can learn round on his benefactors, and say "Now that I am proficient and the only competent man, you must pay me handsomely to be your manager—Rs. 500, Rs. 600, Rs. 1,000 a month." But a more competent European workman will come out at Rs. 250! The mill industries acted on this principle, and there are many of them now which, entirely managed, in every department, by natives who have never set foot on European ground, and some of whom don't even know English.

INDUSTRY AND COMMONSENSE.

THE ARCHBISHOPRIC OF DUBLIN.

The appointment of Dr. Walsh to the Archbishopric of Dublin by the Pope, in accordance with the nearly unanimous vote of the Dublin clergy, is announced by Reuter to-day. It was announced by a Dublin Conservative paper on the 1st June; Mr. Errington, the unofficial representative of the British Government had then left Rome on account of the refusal of the Papal authorities to set aside Dr. Walsh's nomination in favour of an ecclesiastic recommended by Lord Spencer. The London Observer thus sets forth the real nature of the interesting struggle of which Rome was the scene in regard to not rightly judged the position in London. Everybody knows that, so far as the nation and the Church are concerned, Dr. Walsh—the head of Maynooth College and the friend of Cardinal Manning—would be chosen without a dissentient voice. But Dr. Walsh, like nearly all the Roman clergy in Ireland, has found it necessary to join, or to look with sympathy on, the Home Rule party, and so the Government, in their foolish way, began to urge the Pope to appoint somebody else. Mr. Gladstone, in fact, is under the domination of the old Whig superstition that it is possible in these days to govern Ireland through a tool of the Vatican, when the Vatican tells the priests to go one way, and the people have made up their minds to go another. The joke of the situation further lies in the fact that the Vatican, whose veto Sir. Gladstone humbles himself to crave, is really quite as much afraid of Dr. Walsh as the Government—for it must be remembered that the Pope does not want another Archbishop Croke on his hands. The sole aim of the Vatican, in fact, is to denationalise the Irish Catholic Church. Its grand object is to prevent the parochial system, which Paul Cullen stamped out—and which made the parish priests partially independent of their bishops—from being revived. The Pope has no reason to believe, however, that Dr. Walsh will be a handy tool, and hence the success of the Errington mission at Rome. When this was written the statement that Mr. Errington had succeeded was generally believed.

New coin paid during the week Rs. 24,50,091. The balance left was Rs. 95,34,220. There is in addition Rs. 52,65,029 worth of silver bullion belonging to private individuals deposited in the Mint vaults, awaiting assay.

Death from Cholera.—A coroner's inquest was held yesterday at Cowasjee Patel Tank-road, on the body of Ghulam Beejaram, aged 35 years. Deceased was a Brahmin mendicant. He came to Bombay on Tuesday from Ahmedabad, on his way to Dwarka on a pilgrimage, and took up his residence at the Hindoo dharmsalla at Mahadeo Bang. On Wednesday evening he was suddenly seized with cholera, and died in three hours. A verdict to that effect was recorded.

Births and Deaths in Bombay.—The total number of deaths registered during the week ended on Tuesday, 23rd inst., was 453, being 59 more than in the previous week, 62 more than the week ending 24th June, 1884, and 99 more than the mean of the corresponding period in the preceding five years. During the week 272 births were reported in the different districts of the city. The rate of mortality per 1,000 of population per annum was 26·43 calculated on the increase of population since 1884. There were 117 deaths from remittent fever, being 33 more than in the previous week, and in the same period last year. The deaths from diseases of the respiratory system, diarrhœa, and dysentry were last week 67, 16 and 15 respectively, as compared with 53, 9 and 5, in the same time last year. Two deaths were registered last week as compared with 5 in the week previous.

Sudden Death of a Hindu.—An inquest was opened by the Coroner, Dr. Blaney, yesterday at Dhunbundar Bunder by Gulgunderam Ramchandra, aged 33 years. Heeralal Oodowdass, the brother of the deceased, said that deceased was a mehta in the service of a sirdi, but on account of his bad temper he was discharged about eight or ten days ago. Witness scolded him for being discharged, as he was continually losing his appointment. Deceased was of a very excitable temper. At 8 o'clock that morning a servant came and told him that the deceased was lying in a dhurramsalla, and could not be roused. He immediately went to the dhurramsalla and found him lying on the floor, dead. The police were sent for, and on coming there they found a bag belonging to the deceased, and in one of the pockets of his clothing two pieces of paper in his writing, to the effect that he had taken his own life. They were as follows:—"I the writer of this, named Gopalam Mahdoo Jog, have died by my own hand. For this no one is to be blamed, because I have done it myself. I have done this because my life was a burden to me. I inform the Sircar that no one should be brought into trouble on account of my death. Dated Wednesday, native month Jeth 12th." At this stage the inquest was adjourned for further inquiry, and a post-mortem examination was ordered.

Sir James Fergusson and the Native Community.—We quite expected to see that the action of the Bombay natives resident in England, in combining together to do honour to the late Governor of Bombay, Sir James Fergusson, would provoke some adverse criticism from some of their fellow-countrymen in India. Sir James Fergusson was a good friend of the natives while at the head of the Bombay Presidency, both in his public capacity and in his private dealings with the native gentlemen of the Province with whom he came in contact. But he was a judicious friend; he did not flatter them and their aspirations to their full bent, as is the way at some "friends of the natives" do, after the fashion which has become dear to the native heart; but he occasionally told them some home truths, as when, at Poona, not long before his retirement, he insisted, in a public speech, on the necessity of Europeans in India having places of recreation and amusement, clubs, and Kymkhanas for their exclusive use, just as the natives have usages and festivals in which the European can have no part. This is one of the thorns on the rose-stalk which led the Jam-e-Jamshed of Bombay, as they will probably lead other native papers, to comment unfavourably on the action of a "handful of native residents in London."—Indian Daily News.

SMALL CAUSES COURT.—JUNE 25.

(Before Mr. W. E. Hart, Chief Judge.)

ACTION ON A HOONDEE.

CHATURPUTTY LOCOMULL vs. KHIMJEE POONJEE AND OTHERS.

Mr. Nusserwanjee Nowrojee, pleader, appeared for the plaintiff, and one of the defendants appeared in person.

The plaintiff, it appears, was the payee of a hoondee dated the 5th inst., drawn by he defendant to a dunghli, for Rs. 700. The hoondee was made payable in Bombay. It was presented to the defendants' firm, but they declined to pay it. A quantity of gram and grain was forwarded by the defendants, and on receipt was endorsed over to the plaintiff towards satisfaction of the debt. When the bags of grain arrived here, the G. I. P. Railway authorities declined to part with them on the instructions of one of the defendants. The plaintiff thereupon filed this suit, and obtained an order to attach the goods before judgment. On the application of the plaintiff the goods were ordered to be brought and detained in court, the plaintiff agreeing to pay wharfage and all other charges. When the case was called on for hearing to-day, by consent of the parties his honour ordered the goods to be delivered to the plaintiff at a valuation of Rs. 475, and a verdict was given for the balance.

A DISPUTED HAY TRANSACTION.

GOVIND CRISHNAJEE vs. NAINAJEE BAPOOJEE AND OTHERS.

The plaintiffs sought to recover from the defendant the sum of Rs. 643, being the value of 2,925 bundles of hay sold and delivered to them

Mr. Nusserwanjee Nowrojee appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. Shamrao Pandoorung, solicitor, appeared for the defendants.

It appears the plaintiff received two boat-loads of hay consigned to him from Bhewndy, with instructions to sell it to the best advantage. Soon after the arrival of the consignment, the owner himself came to Bombay, and in his presence the plaintiff, acting as his agent, sold the hay to the defendants on the 22nd ult.

The defendants denied the sale, and endeavoured to show that the hay had been bought from the father of the defendants, to whom a part payment was made. It was further contended that the suit could not in law be sustained against the defendants, for the plaintiff was acting as an agent for a disclosed principal, viz., the consignor, who was present, and with whose consent the alleged sale took place.

His honour held that the facts disclosed in evidence showed that the plaintiff was dealing with the defendants as principals, and not as agents of the consignor, and that from the evidence adduced the plaintiff was entitled to a verdict for the amount claimed, Rs. 643.

A DISAFFECTED CREW.

At the Fort Police Court yesterday Captain May of the s.s. Colaba, charged Luckman Munjee and thirteen other callassees of his crew, before Mr. Cooper, with disobedience of lawful commands on the 24th instant.

The men denied that they had refused duty, but added that they did not intend going on board again, as they had been very badly treated by the third officer, who used to spit in their faces and beat them. Five of the men took out summonses last Tuesday against the third officer of the boat, but through some clerical error the second officer's name had been entered and the hearing delayed. The third officer, Mr. Duncan Charles MacIntyre, being in court, Mr. Cooper now thought it better to inquire at once into the statements made by the men and the charges preferred against him.

Mr. MacIntyre denied the accusations.

Mr. Cooper then very patiently heard seven of the men, all of whom complained that the third officer had been in the habit of spitting in their faces and striking them since they left Bombay, and one or them stated that all this stopped when the Colaba light was sighted on their return. None of them could particularise any one assault or give its time and place, or say why they had not complained to the captain or any of the officers, the shipping master or a magistrate, though they were in the

It destroys the animalcule which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produces a cl
